What does she like best about her job?

The people—especially the students. She likes to be available to them and many stop to chat. She knew Chancellor Cheadle and Huttenback well and once had lunch with Chancellor Cheadle and his housekeeper, Martha Ball, at the Faculty Club. She cooked for Walter Capps who once helped her buy tires for her LTD. You can tell Shirley has a passion for UCSB when she talks about her many years here.

Where was she prior to coming to UCSB?

Shirley worked at the YMCA and other various places.

Where else has Shirley lived?

She came from St. Louis, Missouri in 1961. Her parents both worked for Snyders Interiors who were like family and moved all of their employees here when they decided to move the company here. Shirley's father worked for Gerber Plastics at night.

What next?

Shirley has a daughter and 3 grandchildren. She plans to retire next year and will spend time with her grand kids who are all at Santa Barbara City College. One of them was recently published in their newspaper!

What special hobbies does she have?

Shirley likes to sew and cook. She learned to cook from her mother and from a friend who cooked at the San Ysidro Ranch.

What is her claim to fame?
